Queensland Border Declaration Pass (after 12PM, July 10)

Note

- National and state security officers or health or emergency services workers responding to an emergency (eg a paramedic driving an ambulance across the border to transport a patient with life threatening injuries) and maritime crew entering Queensland in accordance with the protocol for maritime crew are not required to complete the Queensland Border Declaration Pass.
- A separate declaration pass is required for each individual, including children, and all travellers in your party must be eligible to enter Queensland. If an individual seeking to enter Queensland is a child or a person with impaired capacity, a parent or guardian may complete this form on behalf of the person.
- Once your Queensland Border Declaration Pass is approved it is valid for a 7-day period or until your circumstances change, whichever is shorter. If you need to enter Queensland after this period, you will need to apply for a new Queensland Border Declaration Pass.
- If you are permitted to enter Queensland and required to quarantine under the Border Restriction Direction and have completed 14 days government mandated quarantine in a COVID-19 Hotspot (<https://www.qld.gov.au/health/conditions/health-alerts/coronavirus-covid-19/current-status/hotspots-covid-19>) you may be eligible for an exemption from the Chief Health Officer.
